

I am against HR 4026 because in this day & age it seems like the 1st amendment is getting stomped on left & right. Maybe this will cause competition and make people try alittle harder, instead of just bulldozing over this "problem". c'mon people where is the strive the american people used to have! It is shameful to let big business bowl over simple little things like weather & traffic.